- D. manually initiating a review by sending out mails to customers requesting information, reviewing and making recommendations, and implementing recommendations after approval

Answer: A

3. The head office of ABC Corporation is at New York, and it has a branch in Tokyo. Their ledgers have the same chart of accounts and calendar. The New York ledger uses USD, whereas the Tokyo ledger uses JPY as the functional currency. ABC Corporation has a requirement that all its branch transactions-subledger journals, General Ledger journal entries, and balances at Tokyo-will have to be routinely reported in USD to New York. As an implementation consultant, which reporting currency conversion would you suggest for ABC Corporation?

- A. balance-level reporting currency only
- B. subledger-level reporting currency only
- C. both journal-level and balance-level reporting currency
- D. both subledger-level and balance-level reporting currency

Answer: B

4. Sam, the CFO of XYZ Company, finds that in the expenditure budget of the current year, there are many funds available in the stationery account, whereas there is not much amount left for employee travel expenses.

Sam instructs the budget analyst John to transfer 80% of the stationery account to the travel expenses account.

While transferring the amount, John encountered errors and approached Sam for a resolution. Sam reviews the situation and clarifies it to John.

Choose what Sam would have explained to John.

- A. There must be some budgetary control enabled on the travel expenses, and a transfer can be made only after a funds check.
- B. There must be some budgetary control enabled on the stationery account, and a transfer can be made only after a funds check.

C. There must be some budgetary control enabled on the stationery and travel expenses accounts, and a transfer can be made only after a funds check.

D. It is not possible to transfer amount from one account to another unless the absolute amount is known. So John should have calculated 80% of the stationery account and then tried to make the transfer.
